Onboarding for Success

Start your Oracle implementation on the right foot. Make sure your users are prepared. AppsKnowledge Oracle 101 Workshops give your team the tools they need early, ensuring smoother transitions and long-term success.

Research highlights that 45–50% of organizations face inadequate training as a barrier to Oracle Cloud transformation. AppsKnowledge bridges this gap with targeted and practical training that aligns with each customer's stage of adoption. We focus on delivering real-world relevance and outcomes-driven learning to help users overcome common challenges and achieve success faster.

Why Early Training Matters

Early training is a strategic and cost-effective investment, simplifying transitions and ensuring user success. With Apps Associates' expertise, we've crafted AppsKnowledge Workshops which include user guides, real-world anecdotes and learning tools to familiarize your team with Oracle systems before the implementation begins.

Enable Successful Change Management

According to McKinsey, 70% of digital transformations fail due to resistance to change and lack of training. Early Oracle training ensures smoother user adoption and long-term success.

Prevent Productivity Loss

Poor training during transformations can reduce productivity by 40% notes Deloitte. Proper onboarding eliminates confusion, reduces errors, and drives efficiency.

Key Benefits

AppsKnowledge combines over 25 years of expertise in Change Management, training, and Oracle/digital transformations to deliver tailored, impactful learning experiences. Built upon insights from countless projects across industries, we focus on simplifying training and accelerating adoption to ensure success.

Our workshops address the challenges of Oracle adoption head-on. Here's what sets us apart:

Curated Learning Paths

Unlike Oracle University's wide selection of thousands of courses, AppsKnowledge offers carefully curated paths. We weave real-world project nuances, best practices, and actionable strategies into every module. This approach eliminates guesswork, saving time and maximizing results.

Built on Experience

Decades of hands-on experience allow AppsKnowledge to address modern business challenges head-on. Our solutions are shaped by successful transformations across organizations, making us an unmatched resource for guiding customers through complex Oracle projects.

Transformational Training

Our programs do more than educate—they enable transformation by merging skills development with behavior change strategies. AppsKnowledge ensures faster adoption, minimized resistance, and sustainable outcomes.
